@thomasjgallerie

Jérémi is passionate about integrating fine art and design with daily life. By seeking to create visionary collections, as well as inspire the viewers enthralled by them, Jérémi's goal was always quite simple: to showcase exclusive artworks that invite us on a journey—a journey to share in the liberty of art in order to discover that freedom within.

Aliento y Florescencia 'breath and bloom'

Inspired by Estancia's name and surrounding landscape, she wanted to reference the rolling La Jolla hills, the Estancia's expansive gardens, and the Spanish-style influence of the property.

about the artist

Stefanie Bales

stefaniebales.com

@stefaniebalesfineart

San Diego-based contemporary, fine art painter and muralist. She is inspired by the interaction of light and landscape, as evident in her whimsical typologies and soft, feminine palettes. Her most recent series are collections of colorful, acrylic and mixed media intuitive paintings—many of which are inspired by the coastal topographies of Southern California, but others are interpretations of geographies that are much less specific.

You're so Golden

Inspired by handcrafted Mexican Talavera tile motifs, this mural celebrates the balance and harmony of nature wrapped around a centralized sunny message: "You're so Golden". It features stylized poppies, lupine, and sunflowers native to California.

Channin Fulton
